BABOHI GAME LODGE, QWABI PRIVATE GAME RESERVE

An authentic safari destination set in one of only two UNESCO-declared savannah biospheres in Africa, QWABI Private Game Reserve presents guests with a unique, immersive safari getaway. Here, they will experience the exceptional QWABI way in Big-Five land coloured with a water-rich ecosystem. In this untamed wilderness, spanning 11, 000 hectares, guests will be met with remarkable sightings and scenery, vibrant hospitality and bespoke luxury.

QWABI is located within the Waterberg Biosphere Reserve, which forms part of the greater Waterberg Region in the province of Limpopo, South Africa. This reserve is one of only two UNESCO-declared savannah biospheres in Africa and is recognised as a critical biodiversity area by the South African National Biodiversity Institute. Known for its exquisite natural beauty and abundance of wildlife, including the Big Five, and birdlife, the Waterberg region gives guests a taste of authentic African wilderness. The landscape has been relatively untouched by humans and few tarred roads exist in the area, giving those who visit an immersive bush experience. The region is also home to rivers, natural pans and streams, breathtaking mountain gorges and rock formations that display rock paintings by the San, who entered the region thousands of years ago. It's an area rich in scenic splendour, in restorative ambiance and in cultural depth.

BABOHI is a distinguished 5Star Lodge exclusively for adults, topped with excellent dining and polished service. This highly modern and inviting retreat displays earthy tones, wooden finishes and warm fabrics that merge with modern coppers, marble finishes and sophisticated hues that allude to the African skies.
